- * Notify employees in writing at the time of hire:
 1. Rate of Pay
 2. Day, hour and place of payment
 3. Employer's fringe benefits policies
- * Notify employees in writing of any reductions in the rate of pay, and any changes in the day, hour or place of payment or benefits.
- * Furnish each employee with a pay statement showing:
 1. Amount of wages due;
 2. Pay period covered by the payment;
 3. Amounts of deductions (separately specified) which have been made from the wages;
 4. Total number of hours worked in pay period (for employees who are paid at an hourly rate).

PAYMENT OF WAGES

- * Wages must be paid at least once each month.
- * Employees must be paid all wages within seven (7) days from the close of each pay period [with some exceptions, see §1102(b)].
- * If the payday falls on a non-work day, payment shall be made on the preceding work day.
- * If an employee is not present on the regular payday, payment shall be made on the next regular workday that the employee is present or by mail (only if requested by the employee).
- * Wages may be paid to a bank account designated by an employee (upon the employee's written request).
- * Wages may be paid in cash or by check (provided that suitable arrangements are made by the employer for cashing at a bank or other business establishment convenient to the workplace).
- * Whenever an employee quits, resigns, is discharged, suspended or laid off, the wages earned shall be paid on the next regularly scheduled payday(s) either through the usual pay channels or by mail (if requested by the employee) as if employment had not been suspended or terminated.

UNLAWFUL DEDUCTIONS:

Employers are not permitted to deduct or withhold wages for:

1. Cash or inventory shortages;
2. Cash advances or charges for goods and services (unless there is a signed agreement specifying the amount owed and the repayment schedule);
3. Damaged Property
4. Failure to return employer's property.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

IMPORTANT THINGS TO DO IN CASE OF INJURY

THE EMPLOYER SHOULD:

1. Provide all necessary medical, surgical, and hospital treatment from the date of accident.
2. Every employer shall keep a record of all injuries received by employees and make a report within ten (10) days thereof in writing to the Office of Workers' Compensation.
3. Ascertain the average weekly wages of the employee and provide compensation in accordance with the provisions of the law, for disability beyond the third day after the accident. All agreements as to compensation must be submitted to the Office of Workers' Compensation for approval.

MINIMUM WAGE

MINIMUM WAGE RATE:

EFFECTIVE: 07-24-09 -- $7.25 per hour
EFFECTIVE: 06-01-14 -- $7.75 per hour
EFFECTIVE: 06-01-15 -- $8.25 per hour

EMPLOYEES WHO RECEIVE TIPS

The minimum cash wage payable to employees who receive tips is $2.23 per hour, effective 10/1/96.

The employer must be able to prove that the employee received the balance of the full minimum rate in tips.

NOTE: Delaware's minimum cash wage for tipped employees is greater than the cash wage required by federal law. Employers must pay Delaware's higher rate.

Tips may not be taken or retained by an employer except as required by law. Tip-pooling is permitted (under certain conditions) in an amount not to exceed 15% of the actual tips received by the employee.

MINIMUM WAGE EXEMPTIONS:

- Employees in agriculture.
- Employees in domestic service in or about private homes.
- Employees of the United States Government.
- Outside commission paid salespeople.
- Bona fide executives, administrators, and professionals.
- Employees engaged in fishing and fish processing at sea.
- Volunteer workers (for educational, religious or non-profit organizations).
- Junior camp counselors employed by non-profit summer camp programs.

RECORD KEEPING REQUIREMENTS:

Employers must keep records (including rate of pay, hours worked, and amount paid for each employee for three (3) years.

DISCRIMINATION

Employers are prohibited by state law from discriminating against employees because of their RACE, COLOR, RELIGION, AGE (40+), SEX (INCLUDING PREGNANCY), SEXUAL ORIENTATION, GENDER IDENTITY, MARITAL STATUS, NATIONAL ORIGIN, and GENETIC INFORMATION. Employers of four (4) or more employees, labor or organization, employment agencies and joint labor-management committees for apprenticeship or training are covered by this law.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT: Sexual harassment of male or female employees is unlawful. Sexual harassment can be any unwelcome sexual advance, request for sexual favor, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. If the harassment is by a supervisor, your employer may be responsible even if you have not complained. If the harassment is by a fellow worker or non-employee, employers are responsible if you have complained to the employer and the employer has taken no action to stop or correct the sexual harassment.

DISABILITY: Employers are prohibited by state law from discriminating against any employee because of disability and requires the employment and advancement of qualified individuals with a disability who, with or without, reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions of a job. This law applies to any employer with 4 or more employees.

PREGNANCY: Delaware law requires employers to provide reasonable accommodations to employees whose ability to work is limited by pregnancy, childbirth, lactation and related conditions. Further, Delaware law prohibits employers from denying pregnant job applicants a position based on the need for a workplace accommodation, making unnecessary changes to a pregnant employees job functions or requiring a pregnant employee to take paid or unpaid leave when a reasonable accommodation would permit the employee to continue working. An employer is not required to provide a pregnant employee with a workplace accommodation if the requested accommodation poses an undue hardship.

ANY PERSON: who believes he or she has been discriminated against should contact the Delaware Department of Labor, Office of Discrimination at (302) 761-8200 or (302) 422-1134. A Charge of Discrimination must be filed within 120 days of the alleged unlawful employment practice.

THE EMPLOYEE SHOULD:

1. Immediately notify the employer in writing of accidental injury or occupational disease and request medical services. Failure to give notice or to accept medical services may deprive the employee of the right to compensation.
2. Give promptly to the employer, directly or through a supervisor, notice of any claim for compensation for the period of disability beyond the third day after the accident. In case of fatal injuries, notice must be given by one or more dependents of the deceased or by a person on their behalf.
3. In case of failure to reach an agreement with the employer in regard to compensation under the law, file an application with the Industrial Accident Board for a hearing on the matters at issue within two (2) years of the date of accidental injury or one (1) year of knowledge of the diagnosis of an occupational disease or an ionizing radiation injury. All forms can be obtained from the Office of Workers' Compensation.

BREAKS

All employees must receive a meal break of at least 30 consecutive minutes if the employee is scheduled to work 7.5 or more hours per day.

Meal breaks must be given sometime after the first two (2) hours of work and before the last two (2) hours of work.

This rule does not apply when:

- The employee is a professional employee certified by the State Board of Education and employed by a local school board to work directly with children.
- There is a collective bargaining agreement or other employer-employee written agreement which provides otherwise.

Rules have been issued granting exemptions when:

- Compliance would adversely affect public safety.
- Only one (1) employee may perform the duties of a position.
- An employer has fewer than five (5) employees on a shift at one location (the exception would only apply to that shift).
- The continuous nature of an employer's operations, such as chemical production or research experiments, requires employees to respond to urgent or unusual conditions at all times and the employees are compensated for their meal breaks.

Where exemptions are allowed, employees must be allowed to eat meals at their work stations or other authorized locations and use restroom facilities as reasonably necessary.
